Home Worship

Lyndsey Gomez from Christchurch led our November's Home Worship. She spoke about the importance of LIGHT - we couldn't manage without it! She drew attention to the words: 'And in Christ was life, and this life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness and the darkness comprehended it not' (St. John's Gospel I, v. 4 & 5. K.J. version). She then went on to say how important light was to artists - and reflected light. So we should reflect that light. Lastly she showed us her twin sister's absolutely beautiful, paintings, which illustrated the affect and reflection of light.

Rev. Barbara Bilston will be coming to our Christmas Home Worship, when we will have the Christmas decorations up, and mince pies, perhaps an Advent Cake we hope, and the MU knitted nativity scene.

We always meet on the first Monday morning of the month, 10am. at 137 High Street, Needham Market. All welcome. We finish with tea/coffee/biscuits and a friendly chat.

News from the Parish Church of St John the Baptist

The church year begins on Advent Sunday which is 3rd December this year – a time to open advent calendars and begin the countdown to Christmas day. I love this time of year and am looking forward to wandering around the town as more and more Christmas decorations go up and more twinkling lights can be seen.

I have always enjoyed Christmas and usually put my decorations up around the first of December (sorry to all of those who are firmly in the 'later the better' camp!) but I am especially looking forward to Christmas day this year. The last few Christmas days have been different for me and probably for many of you. Usually, I would spend Christmas with my parents and my brother and his family (around 10 of us). In 2020 I chose not to spend the day with my parents as I was nervous about taking coronavirus to them and to my grandad who was 95. My brother and sister-in-law spent Christmas with my sister-in-law's poorly dad and my children were with their father as they are every other year. In 2021 we gathered together again but my brother had covid so couldn't be with us. Last year due to our complicated family circumstances my brother and I went to our parents for lunch – just the four of us. It was really lovely to gather as our original family unit but we missed those who couldn't be with us.

I'm sure many of you have had to make changes to your normal Christmas over the last few years. Perhaps you were unable to celebrate with those you love the most, perhaps long-standing traditions had to be put aside.

Although Christmas celebrations may have looked very different over the last few years, there have been opportunities to find blessings. In 2020 after the Christmas morning church service, I visited my parents in their garden and enjoyed a brief Christmas cup of tea – but whilst I was there we saw a bright object moving very quickly through the sky. It turned out to be a meteor and was reported in the East Anglian Daily Times. We wouldn't have seen it if we were indoors. And sadly, my brother's father-in-law died a few months after Christmas. I am so glad they got to spend that last Christmas together.

This year I am hopeful that my family will be able to gather together again although there will be two people missing from when we last all gathered for Christmas day.

As we journey closer to Christmas, let us remember the Christmas story where God enters our world as a helpless baby, as the light of the world. Through Jesus, light shines and twinkles in the darkness with the promise that we are loved and that we can have hope even in the most difficult and dark times.

All are welcome at any and all of our services during Advent and Christmas time. As we move closer to Christmas I pray that you would know God's love with you now and always. No matter what Christmas looks like for you this year, I pray that you and your family will have a blessed Christmas. Amen.

A Christmas Gift

Somewhere I read that a hug is the perfect Christmas gift – one size fits all and nobody minds if you return it. This reminded me of a young person who had no money for Christmas gifts but he came up with some very clever gift ideas that really were an investment of his time and energy. He gave the gift of himself. ...a month of Sundays to help his Mum with odd jobs, cutting firewood and stacking it by the back door for his Dad, and help with his younger brother's homework.

You and I should be our best gift that we could ever give to another. What about your gift list this Christmas? Nothing could say more than the time, interest and love that you give to a friend or loved one. That's what God gave us when He gave Himself in the person of Jesus Christ. God so loved the world that He gave... Love, the most valuable gift of all. May you know His peace and joy this Christmas.
LG

Join us at Christchurch this Christmas time.....

On Christmas Day at 10.30am for our Christmas Service.

And on December 17th, at St John's Church, for a joint churches Carol Service at 4pm.

We look forward to seeing you.

Christmas is coming

As we begin the month of December for most, if not all of us, our thoughts will be focused on Christmas. It is a busy time of year with Christmas shopping; planning Christmas festivities; putting up decorations; attending Christmas Plays and Carol Services.

It is often a time when we eat too much; drink too much; spend too much.

For us as Christians, it is a very special time. It is a time when we celebrate the most amazing event in the whole of human history. This event happened some 2000 years ago when Almighty God, the maker of Heaven and Earth, our creator, took on human flesh and left heaven to come down to this earth to be born in a stable in Bethlehem.

This in itself is amazing! But when we think of why He came, which was to offer His life as a sacrifice for our sin, by dying on a cruel Roman cross, we wonder why He did it.

The reason is because He loves us and wants us to be saved from the consequences of our sin so that we can be reconciled with Him and therefore be assured of a wonderful eternal future with Him in Heaven.

This what we celebrate at Christmas, and we invite you to join with us for our Christmas services, to discover more about why the message of Christmas is important for you:

Christmas Eve – Services at 10.30am and 6.00pm

Christmas Day – A short service at 10.30am

We wish you a very Happy Christmas. Do come and join with us. You will be receive a warm welcome.
